

2017 Podere Conca Elleboro Bianco

| | | | |
|--------------------|----------------------|------------------------------------|--|
| Rating | Release Price | Drink Date | Producer: |
| 88 | $20 | 2019 - 2021 | |
| Reviewed by | Issue Date | Source | From: Italy , Tuscany , Toscana |
| Monica Lerner | 16th May 2019 | May 2019 Week 2, The Wine Advocate | Color: White |
| | | | Type: Table |

This white blend is made with 50% Viognier, 35% Chardonnay and 15% Sauvignon Blanc. With winemaking only in stainless steel, you get plenty of fresh zest and crispness in the 2017 Elleboro Bianco, with lemon rind, honeysuckle and garden herb. This wine would wash down nicely with fried calamari rings. Some 4,500 bottles were made.

Sweetness: Dry

Type: Table

Variety: Proprietary Blend

2016 Podere Conca Bolgheri Rosso Agapanto

| | | | |
|--------------------|----------------------|------------------------------------|---|
| Rating | Release Price | Drink Date | Producer: |
| 90 | $35 | 2019 - 2024 | |
| Reviewed by | Issue Date | Source | From: Italy , Tuscany , Bolgheri Rosso |
| Monica Lerner | 16th May 2019 | May 2019 Week 2, The Wine Advocate | Color: Red |
| | | | Type: Table |

The 2016 Bolgheri Rosso Agapanto entices with notes of cherry liqueur and PEZ, with some powdery chalk. There are earthy notes as well, with hummus or potting soil. There is a pleasant harmony to this wine, a nice sense of balance and freshness. This is an encouraging start for a budding estate in Bolgheri. Some 5,000 bottles were made. The blend is 50% Cabernet Sauvignon, 35% Cabernet Franc and 15% Ciliegiolo.

Sweetness: Dry

Type: Table

Variety: Proprietary Blend