

PODERE CONCA

BOLGHERI

ELLEBORO IGT TOSCANA

NAME – Elleboro from Helleborus, flower of the Ranunculaceae family, also called Christmas Rose because it blooms in December.

GRAPE VARIETIES – Viognier, Chardonnay, Sauvignon blanc.

WINE-MAKING – The grapes are hand-harvested, destemmed, crushed, and fermented in stainless steel tanks.

AGEING – In stainless steel for 4 months, followed by two months in the bottle.

COLOUR – Pale yellow.

SCENT – The bouquet includes notes of summer yellow fruits, above all peach and apricot.

TASTE – Strong in the mouth at the beginning; Elleboro features a beautiful structure enhanced by fresh acidity and compelling flavour.

ACCOMPANIMENTS – Perfect as aperitif or with fish dishes or light entrées.

ALCOHOL – 13% alcohol by volume
